

PECBMS workshop

EBCC conference Bird Numbers „Counting birds counts“ Évora, April 2019

Date and time: Friday 12th of April, 18.00–19.30

Venue: Grand Auditorium (Room 102)

Aims of the workshop

To inform PECBMS coordinators and wider network about progress in our work, to introduce the new tools for computation and data delivery and stimulate discussion about future plans and priorities.

Attendance

National coordinators of the schemes contributing to PECBMS, wider PECBMS network, other participants of the EBCC conference.

Workshop Agenda

Foreword: Ruud P. B. Foppen

1. Report of the PECBMS coordination team

Short information on tasks and activities implemented during last three years, the main achievements and failures.

Petr Voříšek, 10 minutes + 5 minutes for discussion

2. Technological developments in PECBMS and their consequences for our work

RTRIM, MSI tool – implications for computation and data delivery

On-line tools – TRIM output tool, Site level data tool

Eva Šilarová, 20 minutes + 10 minutes for discussion

3. New indicators

Information and potential discussion of outputs from the miniworkshop in Solsona (March 2019), further directions in development of indicators.

Alena Klvaňová, 10 minutes + 5 minutes for discussion

4. Any need for further training/help from PECBMS coordination team

Open forum for discussion of needs from national coordinators and other participants.

30 minutes